House Ready To Vote Post Office Dep't Money To Restore Service

SUSPENSION OF CUTBACKS IS EXPECTED

Washington (AP)—The House was ready to approve swiftly today a bill to give the Post Office Department another 41 million dollars to restore normal mail service.

The Senate was poised to act, possibly tomorrow, thus clearing the way for Postmaster General Summerfield to call off service cutbacks begun Saturday.

Meanwhile, a second stage of Summerfield's cutback order became effective today. Mail deliveries to city business districts were limited to two a day, and Postmaster E. S. Knabenshue said today that the post office was clearing out an accumulation of parcel post packages which piled up when Saturday deliveries were called off. But all first class mail was delivered, according to Knabenshue, who also said that special deliveries jumped by about 25 per cent over the weekend. Adjusted window hours of 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and 8:30 to 12:30 Wednesday and Saturdays will continue, in compliance with a new government regulation issued before Saturday deliveries were cut.

most post offices went on an 8½-hour schedule for window service.

Sen. Robertson (D-Va.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations subcommittee handling postal funds, said he would urge the Senate to accept the 41-million-dollar figure. He said he feels that's enough to restore all postal services.

Summerfield has said he will make no move to restore service. (Turn to Page Nine)

Heart Attack Proves Fatal To Commissioners' Clerk Ray S. Thompson After Brief Illness

Ray S. Thompson, Warren County Commissioner's Clerk for 11 years and a familiar figure in the Court House since 1939, died in Warren General Hospital at 11:10 p. m. Sunday, where he had been admitted earlier in the week following a heart attack. He was 69 years old.

Mr. Thompson was born May 13, 1887 in Russell and had resided in that community his entire life. Prior to his death he lived at 19 Conewango Avenue, Russell, with his wife, the former Hazel Bennett whom he married August 5, 1908.

His passing was mourned by county commissioners who spoke highly of the efficient way in which Mr. Thompson had run their office for nearly a dozen years, keeping abreast of many devious county items and generally acquainting new commissioners with the complexities of their commission.

Mr. Thompson was very active in community affairs, was a trustee and charter member of Russell Volunteer Fire Department, belonged to Russell IOOF, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Pine Grove Lions Club. He was also an agent for Nationwide Insurance.

Surviving besides his wife, are two daughters, Mrs. Jack Lees of Jamestown, N. Y., and Mrs. Thomas Conrad of Lansdowne, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. Louella Jenkins of Jamestown.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Thursday with interment in Pine Grove Cemetery, Russell. Calling hours will begin at seven p. m. this evening.

State Executive and G. O. P. Leaders Press Opposing Views On Objectives During Recess

Harrisburg (AP)—Gov. Leader and Republican legislative leaders pressed opposing views on objectives today despite the week's Easter recess of the General Assembly.

The differences between the Democratic governor and the Republican-controlled Legislature revolved largely around money matters.

Leader, calling for a "good government showdown" invited leaders of both parties to confer with him April 24 on the administration legislative program now hanging fire in committees.

But even as the conference was called one top Republican source, who declined to be identified, said, "the governor isn't going to get any new programs that cost money."

The Republican House leadership also took the offensive in the battle over the governor's 1.6 million dollar budget for the 1957-58 biennium, starting June 1.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, urged GOP legislators to take the budget-cutting drive to the home folks during the Eastern recess.

Johnson referred to Republican plans to trim the general fund budget. Some have mentioned a top figure of 100 millions although others conceded they doubted that objective could be reached.

But leader called on the GOP to join Democrats to "roll up our sleeves, work together and do this vital, important job so essential to good government, both now and in the years ahead."

He said more than 200 administration-backed measures are before the General Assembly, ranging from civil service expansion to tightening of inspection laws.

(Included among those invited to the Wednesday meeting at the executive mansion are Allen M. Gibson, Sheffield, assistant floor leader, and Rowland B. Mahany, Titusville, G.O.P. floor leader.)

Following their plan inaugurated some years ago, members of the Rotary Club attended the service as a group, adjourning afterward to the YWCA activities building for their regular weekly luncheon and brief business session.

The Rev. Francis E. Fehman, pastor of Salem Evangelical United Brethren church, will preside at the second service on Tuesday, with Bishop Crittenden speaking on "The Way of Faith," and Lions Club members as the special attendance group.

Nasser Faces Fight to Retain His Leadership

Cairo (AP)—Egypt's President Nasser faces the fight of his political life to retain leadership of the Arab world after King Hussein's coup in Jordan.

Hussein's overthrow of pro-Egyptian elements represents a major break in the so-called "free Arab" front—a grouping of states who oppose the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact and formal Arab ties with the West. The group is composed of Egypt, Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Yemen.

Winning Jordan over to this Arab clique had been one of Nasser's signal victories over the West of the past two years.

He achieved this through the ouster of Gen. Sir John Bagot Glubb, British founder of the Arab Legion, and the termination of the British-Jordan treaty.

Nasser was unchallenged leader of the Arab group and for a time had all the other Arab governments on the defensive in the face of a wave of anti-Western nationalism sponsored by Cairo.

Nasser reached his peak of influence in Jordan last October when a heavily pro-Egyptian parliament was elected and the armies under Egyptian command for any joint operations that might arise.

Early this year, Nasser's leadership was challenged by President Eisenhower's Middle East doctrine. The Egyptian President regarded this as an effort to isolate Egypt by drawing the other Arabs into close cooperation with the United States.

Even Nasser's old ally, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, began flirting with America and lined up in a strong anti-Communist position.

Arab states outside Nasser's bloc—Lebanon, Iraq, Libya and Tunisia—quickly fell into line with the Eisenhower Doctrine. King Hussein initially welcomed the doctrine, but his pro-Egyptian Prime Minister, Suleiman Nabulsi attacked it strongly.

A showdown finally came and at the moment Hussein has achieved the upper hand through use of force.

The building housed the Lee Drug Store, an office occupied by Dr. E. L. Mortimer, a hardware store owned by Robert Kosanovic, and the post office.

Fire Chief Tomasello of Petrolia said the blaze apparently began in the drug store.

The building was owned by R. D. Foss of Karns City. An estimate of the loss was not immediately available.

Fire companies from East Brady, Chicora, North Washington, Perry Twp., in Clarion County, Parker, East Butler, Emmenton and Foxburg aided Petrolia firemen.

Senator Wants Inquiry Into Reuther Tactic

Washington (AP)—Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) spoke up today in defense of an old adversary, UAW President Walter Reuther, but said he still wants to investigate Reuther's union tactics.

"I believe Reuther is an honest man," said Goldwater, a member of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

He said there is no conflict between this statement, which he said he made "in fairness," and his desire to investigate the role of Reuther and his United Auto Workers in a three-year-old strike the union still is pushing against the Kohler Co. on Kohler, Wis.

The firm now is operating with non-strikers and new workers. It has accused the union of "violence and vandalism" and of boycott efforts. The union says the company has refused to bargain in good faith.

Goldwater said his own staff is looking into the legality of union tactics in that dispute.

Much of Goldwater's dispute with Reuther has revolved around the senator's contention that it is wrong to use union funds for political purposes.

The committee has no immediate plans for any kind of investigation of the auto workers union.

Portland Official Has Date in Court Today

Portland, Ore. (AP)—Dist. Atty. William M. Langley, convicted of failing to prosecute gamblers, will go into court today to try to hold on to his job.

Langley, one of the focal points in a year long vice investigation in Portland, was convicted by a State Circuit Court jury Saturday.

The penalty is removal from office and a possible $50 to $500 fine, but Langley's attorneys obtained an arrest of judgement. They are scheduled to argue for further delay and also to make a motion for a new trial.

They said they plan to appeal if their motions are denied.

Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce

announced today it will conduct the "Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up" campaign the week of May 1st to May 8th with plans moving ahead under the able chairmanship of Lenny Johnson. Other committee members are Gail Cobb, Ronnie McCain, Ted Wood and Bill Hesch. The campaign is an opportunity for all Warren residents to clean their homes of rubbish and scrap materials with the Junior Chamber of Commerce picking up the material the final two days of the campaign.

Junior Chamber of Commerce would like to remind everyone the campaign is not only for the free pick-up of rubbish and scrap material, but is meant to be a reminder that spring is here and it is time to clean the entire boro. For the homeowners, it is time to remove all fire hazards, clean eaves, spouts, landscape, paint and to make other repairs so vital in making our homes beautiful and healthy. For industry, it is time for thorough housecleaning, inside and out, to make the factories more pleasant to work in and more attractive to the eye. The campaign is a reminder that winter is over and it is time to clean up our boro.

All residents are urged to use the first 5 days of the campaign to clean cellars, attics and garages. The scrap and rubbish should be kept separate and placed at the curb in boxes or baskets, whenever possible, and Junior Chamber of Commerce members will pick up all rubbish and scrap the last two days of the campaign, Tuesday, May 7th and Wednesday, May 8th. Proceeds from the scrap material will be used to buy rubbish baskets for the boro parks. Another service the Junior Chamber of Commerce will perform is to clean the statue of General Joseph Warren, located in the park at the corner of Third and Pennsylvania avenues.

The aid the Jaycees in the collection of rubbish and scrap, the following firms have donated trucks and drivers: Valentine Disposal Co., Charles Punskey and Son, Emblem Oil Company, L. Segel and Son, R. Punskey and Sons, Struthers Wells, Warren Boro, Warren Asphalt Products, and Williams Salvage Company. A salvage truck and a rubbish truck will work as a team in covering the entire boro. Without the cooperation of these firms, the Junior Chamber of Commerce would be unable to carry out their pick-ups on May 7th and May 8th.

It is urged all residents will use the week of May 1st to May 8th to Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up.

Opening Day of Trout Season Is Chilly One

Droves of fishermen swarmed out under sunny skies this morning for some angling hours under ideal fishing conditions.

One of the most popular spots in this area was Chapman Dam where fishermen numbering more than 100, went after the trout with no live bait. Fishing was reported good and several persons had the limit in short time.

Other Isaac Waltons had the usual story and the usual luck, with the usual fish getting away. But with 50,000 fish stocked in county streams, luck in this area ran more good than bad.

Harrisburg (AP)—Thousands of fishermen braved freezing weather today at opening of Pennsylvania's 1957 trout season.

Most fishermen, however, were forewarned of the chilly weather and dressed for it when they went to their favorite stream.

Temperatures in the state at daybreak ranged from 20 degrees upward. They were expected to go up during the day to the middle 40's in the north to 50 and 60 in the southern areas.

Weather conditions appeared more suited for tracking deer than snaring fish, especially in some northern mountain areas where snow is still on the ground.

But many hearty Isaac Waltons camped the night near their favorite stream to await the opening of the season that will be one of the longest trout campaigns in modern state history—4½ months, extending through Labor Day (Sept. 2). Across the state thousands of fishermen went after some 2,400,000 hatchery fish stocked along 4,500 miles of stream by the state fish commission.

More than 700,000 resident fishing licenses have been issued. Though the fish commission was unable to estimate the opening day crowd, it was generally expected nearly a half million anglers braved the cool weather for a try at the streams.

Irvine Tract To Be Developed As County Historical Shrine

Forest Supervisor E. M. Bacon of the Allegheny National Forest today announced tentative plans for development of a portion of the Irvine Tract donated to the United States by Lydia Biddle.

MAJOR ARMY UNITS STILL BACK HUSSEIN

BULLETIN
Amann (AP)—Hussein Fakhri Khalidi, a pro-western political leader, was named Jordan's new premier today. This was a victory for King Hussein in a six-day-old cabinet crisis. The seven-man cabinet includes Suleiman Nabulsi, the Leftist National Socialist party leader dismissed as premier last Wednesday.

Dispatches from Amman are under censorship. Earlier advices reaching Damascus pictured Hussein as gaining steadily in a bold struggle to purge pro-Egyptian leaders from Jordan's army and political life. Yesterday Hussein exiled the Jordan army's pro-Egyptian chief of staff. Despite this, the major elements of the Jordan army were apparently behind the King.

Damascus, Syria, (AP)—King Hussein moved swiftly today to shore up his gains in his bold struggle to purge pro-Egyptian leaders from Jordan's army and political life.

With major units of the 24,000-man Jordan army apparently still supporting him, Hussein summoned all of Jordan's past premiers and most of parliament to a top-level political conference at the palace. Yesterday the 21-year-old King deported the army's pro-Egyptian chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Ali Abu Nuwar, to Syria.

Hussein still faced a grave threat in the possibility of rioting among his Palestinian subjects. But there was no word of violence today in Jordan.

Informed sources in Amman said the King told the political leaders of steps taken to form a new government. Said Mufti, an independent, was trying for the third time to put together a Cabinet.

In Damascus, the Jordanian Embassy issued a statement saying Hussein adheres to the "liberal Arab policy" drawn up by Hussein, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, and Presidents Nasser of Egypt and Shukri Kuwalty of Syria.

The statement said Hussein was about to end his talks with Jordanian party leaders on forming a new Cabinet. The new government's policy would, the statement continued, be based on the political decision, based on the political decision. (Turn to Page Nine)

The Retail Merchants Division of the Bradford Chamber of Commerce voted wholeheartedly last night in favor of 10-cent parking meters. Rollin Singer, chairman, pointed out that the merchants had no intention of asking that the meters be eliminated or that they be cut back to five cents an hour. He said the present fee created a greater turnover in parking meter spaces. He said, if there was any recession in business, parking meter fees were not to blame.

Grecian Student at W. H. S. Writes an Interesting Story of Experiences in United States

Tuesday's release of the Dragon-Spiridon, invited me to visit them. I like America very much because the people are very friendly. The name of my town is Clefthean girl who is now visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Macedonia. Spiridon, of 203 Buchanan street, attending W. H. S. Her story to the student body and teachers was as follows:

IRENE APOSTOLAKI

"I am eighteen years old. My family are my parents and my two brothers who are younger than me. My family lives in Greece. I arrived in the U. S. A. on January 19, 1957, on the Italian boat 'Vulcania', and I plan to stay here for six months or longer. My uncle and my aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Macedonia, are working in shop

"My town is smaller than Warren because it has 6,000 population. Also it has a high school which is built on a hill. It does not have a river but the sea is very near, about a half-hour drive.

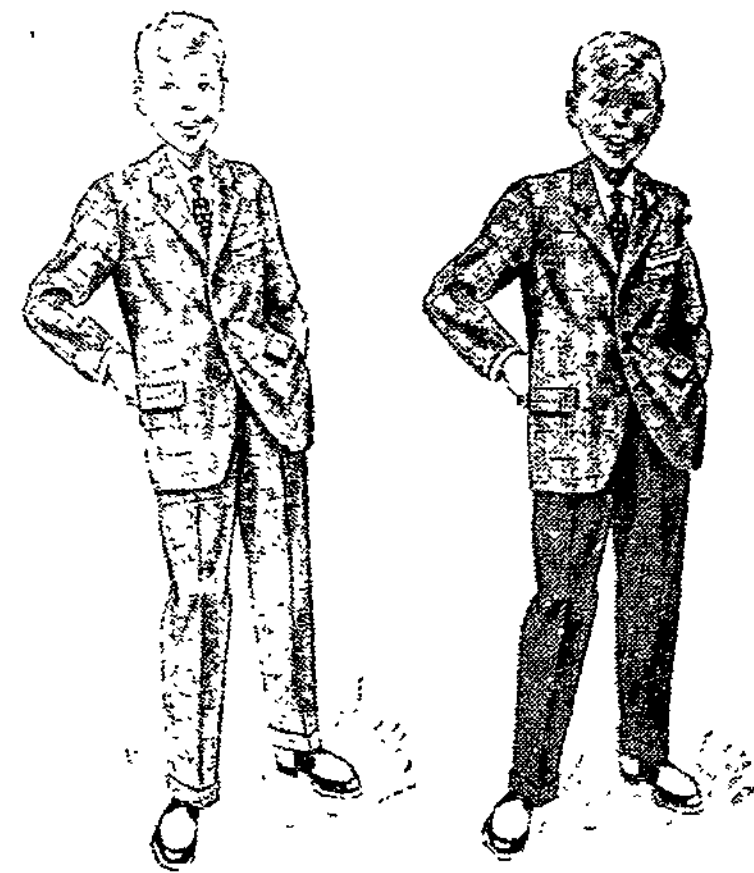

"School is much different. All subjects in my high school are compulsory. We have no music in my high school because we do not have the means to hire music teachers. There is music in some of the high schools. All students take Latin. Our high school is for six years, from 12 to 17 years. We do not take lessons every day. For ex.: Latin, Mon.; history etc. Wed.; and chemistry etc. Tues and Thurs. We take religious lessons in the school because all Greek students are Christian Orthodox. We do not have cafeterias in the schools but we eat at home after school. Our lessons begin at 8 1/2 o'clock (8:30) and end at 1 or 2 o'clock. We also have school on Saturdays.

"I am very glad to come to this school to learn English. I am very grateful for the interest the teachers bear in me, and I want to thank them. I also want to thank the students from the bottom of my heart, and shall never forget the love you have just rendered me.

"Thanking you again, your affectionate student and friend, Irene." In a special page for the class of '60, an Editorial expresses the idea that it is not the condition of WHS which makes up the school but the student body.

The class of 1956 has purchased a cup in memory of Glenn A. Ancania, and I plan to stay here for six months or longer. This cup will be awarded each year to a senior boy doing outstanding work in shop

MAYFLOWER II REPEATS HISTORY—Her prow pointed toward the New World, Mayflower II rides at anchor at Brixham, England, ready for her history-repeating journey to Plymouth, Mass. A gift of the people of England as a symbol of Anglo-American friendship, Mayflower II duplicates almost exactly the 180-ton galleon that first arrived off New England in 1620. Although she may leave to some days earlier, official welcome is scheduled for May 25 at Plymouth, Mass., where her arrival will touch off a 10-day celebration. She'll be berthed eventually two miles south of Plymouth, where a restored "Plymouth Plantation" will be completed some time in 1958. Its construction is sponsored by Plymouth Plantation, Inc., a nonprofit, educational organization which has been planning the million-dollar project for nine years. After a few weeks, Mayflower II will sail to New York City and berth there until she makes a return trip to Plymouth at Thanksgiving. Plans call for her to winter at Boston, Mass., until her permanent concrete docking cradle is readied at Plymouth.

BARGAIN-MINDED SHOPPERS

Pennsylvanians are bargain-minded in this season's search for Easter finery, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Philadelphia, which says "Key-stone State merchants report shoppers especially are seeking better buys among higher quality merchandise."

A survey of leading department stores and specialty shops reveals that officials believe the late Easter—April 21—might result in a five per cent increase in business over last year. Some evidence of this was noted in the shopping district of Warren Friday evening and Saturday. As one retailer commented: "The Easter shoppers really were out in force."

The Philadelphia dispatch says prices are reported about the same as last year on most spring clothing items, and supplies are ample.

Said one store executive:

"There appears to be more shopping around to get the best value—not a budget-priced garment but top quality merchandise—at the cheapest price. We have increased pre-Easter sales on better merchandise."

The owner of another store said luxury items are selling well, often because more bargains are being offered in those lines.

GOOD NEWS FOR PROCRASTINATORS

It must have been good news to that large segment of citizens who put off until the last minute filing their annual Federal Income Tax reports to learn that nothing stands in the way of the tax collector—not even a cutback in postal service.

It was announced over the weekend by Postal Authorities that all accumulated mail would be delivered today on schedule. This includes all last-minute income tax returns due at midnight. Taxpayers who file after the deadline are subject to a five per cent penalty each month on the amount owed.

If there was any inconvenience over the weekend it was not apparent in Warren. The only workers not engaged Saturday were the mail carriers, window personnel and some extra help. The inside men—the distributors—continued to work. All mail appeared to be moving on normal schedule from the local Post Office, so far as the usual weekly accumulation of mail for the Times-Mirror was concerned.

The cutbacks created two problems, however. It meant bigger mail loads for carriers today, while special delivery messengers and a number of clerical workers lose income in loss of employment.

RAY S. THOMPSON

The sudden death of Ray S. Thompson, popular clerk in the office of the county commissioners over a long period of years, comes as a shock, not only to his home town of Russell where he was a foremost citizen but to Warren county and borough.

In his own community, Mr. Thompson was known as a friendly counselor and able leader. He was a life-long Republican, and had filled the office of commissioners' clerk with commendable satisfaction that won him the confidence and admiration of all who had occasion to meet him "across the counter."

His varied interests covered a wide field of activities during which he gave untiringly of his time and service to his church and many organizations with which he was affiliated.

The sorrowing family has the sympathy of all in their untimely bereavement.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Here and There

Rabbi Fred Ackerman, of the local synagogue, submits the following information about the Jewish Passover, or "Festival of Freedom." "Sundown tonight will mark the beginning of Passover, the eight day religious festival during which the Jewish people throughout the world celebrate the exodus of the Israelites from Egyptian bondage, some 3500 years ago. Coming each year with the spring, Passover, is a time of joy and hope and thanksgiving for God for the gifts of freedom. It is a time when the family gathers for the year's big reunion. Weeks before the holiday the housewife embarks on a clearing of the household from doorstep to closet tops. The night before Passover, the ceremony of Searching for Leaven is observed to make sure that every bit of bread, flour and cereal has been removed—for it is forbidden to eat them during the night days. A supply of special foods fills the cupboards and everyday dishes are replaced with Passover China. The holiday is ushered in with the lighting of candles by the mistress of the house as she says the special prayer. Parents, grandparents, children, relatives and friends gather round the family table for the seder, a feast rich in religious symbolism, which is held on the first and second Passover nights. At these evening meals certain foods are eaten to dramatize the telling of the story of the deliverance from Egypt. The story and the ceremonies of the seder as prescribed by Jewish law are read from a book known as the Haggadah. Before the feast begins, the head of the house reads a prayer of thanksgiving. Then the youngest boy in the family asks the four traditional questions, beginning with: 'Why is this night different from all other nights?' In answer the master of the house begins reading from the Haggadah, the tale of the flight from Egypt. On the table before the master of the house is the seder plate, upon which rest the symbolic foods, a bitter herb, parsley for freedom; a nut, apple and wine mixture called charoset, a reminder of the mortar with which the Jewish slaves built Egyptian cities, a lamb bone representing the Paschal sacrificial lamb; a roasted egg commemorating the special additional offering brought to the ancient temple, and three matzoths recalling the haste of the flight from Egypt, when the Israelite did not have time to let the dough rise. When the reading is over and the meal finished, the seder table becomes the scene of a songfest. The songs are happy tunes that are old, even in the memories of the elders. Today, Passover is as significant as it has ever been. Slavery today embraces vast sections of mankind. Crushed under the heel of modern tyrants, oppressed nations and people learn and struggle for freedom. Our festival Passover therefore, is dedicated this year to the hope, that we may all soon witness a new freedom brought to the world."

A reader sends in a reminder that Sunday was the 45th anniversary of the greatest ocean disaster in history, the sinking of the Titanic with the loss of 1,517 lives. It was at 10.25 o'clock that evening that the vessel, called at the time the world's safest luxury liner, struck an iceberg in the North Atlantic and sank. History says the first word flashed to America was that the passengers were all safe. However, some hours later, within sight of potential rescuers, the ship suddenly sank to the bottom of the ocean. The date will long be remembered. It was April 14, 1912. The world Almanac says the White Star liner was wrecked on her maiden voyage from Southampton to New York, off Newfoundland. There seems to have been a discrepancy as to the exact number of persons who lost their lives. In this country it was reported 1,517 went down with the ship, while the British Board of Trade listed the number as 1,503. Passengers and crew aboard totaled 2,207. The ship was 882½ feet long and cost $7,500,000.

Washington Letter

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN and KENNETH O. GILMORE

NEA Staff Correspondents

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The annual battle over foreign aid begins soon when President Eisenhower's program for the next fiscal year goes to Congress. Because of the great economy drive this year, the battle may be more bitter than usual.

The President's budget message in January indicated a request for 4.6 billion dollars. Later, the President cut this to 4.4 billion—2.9 for military assistance and 1.5 for economic aid. These figures might be cut even lower before going to Congress. On the other hand, new Middle East programs might increase them.

Last year President Eisenhower asked for a 4.8-billion-dollar foreign aid program. Congress appropriated 3.7 billion—two billion for military assistance, 1.7 billion for economic aid.

The program will be a worse whipping boy than usual this year.

VOTERS BACK HOME, more interested in federal aid for local schools, highways or farm relief—give support to this resentment against spending so many U.S. tax dollars overseas.

Demands now vary from Sen. Bill Knowland's (R-Calif) hope for a billion-dollar cut to Sen. Dick Russell's (D-Ga) wish that all foreign aid could be abolished.

When all the holler is over, however, the odds are just what they always have been that a sizable foreign aid program will be approved by Congress. That's the way it always has been.

Nobody likes the idea of giving away a lot of money to foreign countries. But when all the cards are down it is usually seen there is no escape from the realities of Communist aggression and U.S. and allied free world national defense needs.

Opposition to foreign aid is usually more sound than substance. Anyone who wants to can compile an imposing list of mistakes that have been made in administering foreign aid programs, if its larger accomplishments are ignored.

REP. GEORGE MEADER (R-Mich) has such a piece in a current magazine. Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La) widely traveled one-man investigator, returns from every summer's trip abroad with many criticisms of foreign aid administration.

Rep. Porter Hardy Jr. (D-Va) heads a subcommittee which has made a blistering attack on the International Cooperation Administration work in Iran. This is the country where two U.S. aid technicians and the wife of one of them were ambushed and murdered by bandits. They were en route to inspect a project.

A Senate special committee under Sen. Theodore Francis Green (D-Ri) is now issuing a series of 20 special investigative reports on the foreign aid programs.

Eleven surveys were made for the committee by private research organizations. Nine were made by prominent private citizens assigned to study foreign aid in specific areas.

THERE IS MUCH critical comment throughout the reports. Mistakes have unquestionably been made by the million dollars' worth. But the main tenor is that foreign aid programs are helpful to the United States and that their continuance is necessary.

Practically every survey made by responsible individuals not connected with government comes up with the same conclusion. Thus, the President's Citizen Advisory Committee on Mutual Security made a unanimous report that the program "will be essential for some years to come" and that "the overall expenditures have been justified. . . . The American taxpayers have received a

Styled for Spring: The Ladylike Hairdo

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

THIS spring's cloche hats and Chanel suits have brought out hairdos that are good company for the new fashions.

They're shorter, softer and cut closer to the head. They're neither gamine nor wind-blown but ladylike and feminine in the same way that new clothes are reminiscent of the clothes of the 1930's.

The "C" line is one that sweeps back from the forehead and curls forward prettily on the cheeks. It's ideal for the new hats but equally good when you're not wearing a hat.

The "C" line is the kind of hairdo that can be based on a quick home permanent, one with clear lotion that gives both body and curl. The result will be a lasting wave but one that is not tight.

When you pick such a home permanent, pick the one in the right strength for your hair: regular, super or gentle.

Spring hairdos for the new cloche hats are shorter, softer and closer to the head. This one curves high off the forehead and forward on the cheeks. It's both easy to care for and flattering.

Warren High Junior Class Play One Of Best Presented in Many Seasons

The play committee and Director Mary Jane McHenry made a wise choice when they selected Christopher Sergel's "Mother Is a Freshman" for this year's Warren High School junior class production, and enthusiastic audiences assembled in the school auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings witnessed their approval of fine performances by the 15 juniors in the cast.

The show was unusually well cast from start to finish and performers seemed admirably cast in each characterization. This is one production, certainly, in which there was little need for a prop-holder, and there was a minimum of what theatre-goers are apt to classify as ham in amateur productions.

Warren Players' Club would do well, in the writer's opinion, to look to this particular cast for some of the younger talent frequently needed in its productions.

"Mother Is a Freshman" is based on a Pointer College scholarship requirement that the recipient must bear the names of Abigail Fortitude, an essential long-unfulfilled until Abbie Abbott sees in it the one opportunity for her daughter, Susan, to continue her studies at the school.

The attractive Abbie enrolls as a freshman and is a hit, of course, with the young men on the campus. Her charms aren't at all appreciated, however, by the young ladies and particularly by her sophomore daughter. Troubles pile up thick and fast when she is assigned to the dreary Prof. Michael's zoology class and biology seems about to take over. All ends well, however, as everyone knew it would and she is forgiven by all concerned.

'Free Expression' Theory Is Tough on a Little Boy

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

THE letter says, "My 5-year-old grandson is being raised by the modern theory of 'free expression.' Two days ago, he insulted an old friend of mine he had met for the first time. When she offered to untangle a string for him that had gotten snarled in a toy, he told her to go home—that he didn't like her. His mother justified this by calling it his 'honesty.' What do you think of such training?"

I think it is pretty hard on the little boy. If his parents continue to encourage such uncontrolled expression, he is going to attract more criticism than his five-year-old confidence can take.

One of these days his "honesty" will provoke somebody else to a "free expression" of resentment that will shock him rather cruelly. Such an experience could end, not only in distrust of his parents' ability to protect him, but in rejection of honesty as a reliable quality.

IT'S unfortunate that the theorists of "free expression" ever suggested that a child's emotional health depends on his doing or saying anything he feels. Because it isn't true.

His emotional health, like ours, depends not on telling other people what he feels but on his knowing what he feels. It is when we make him falsify his feelings that the moral damage is done and he doesn't make him PRETEND to like Grandma's friend when he doesn't like her.

So long as we respect his right to dislike her, we can ask him to refrain from expressing the feeling when the expression is unwise.

So what we might say to this little boy who must learn when silence is golden is this: "It is all right for you to dislike Grandma's friend. It is all right for you to wish she'd go home. But it was unwise to tell her so. It just started her disliking you, and wishing you'd go home. So unless you want to be disliked yourself, don't tell strangers you don't like them."

Parents who refuse to put any controls on a child's free expression, whether it be a wagging tongue or a kicking foot, are seldom motivated by interest in his honesty.

They are far more interested in using him to express their own resentments of conventional authority. Not daring to defy it themselves, they take a second-hand satisfaction in the child's defiance of it.

They themselves are victims of emotional dishonesty.

Women Haven't Sold Men On Doing 'Women's Work'

WOMEN have sold the men on the idea that there is no such thing as "a man's job."

We've edged our way into almost every line of work that carries a pay check.

And at home, you'll see us mowing lawns, painting rooms, luging in big sacks of groceries without ever a "Here, let me do that" from our menfolk.

We've even sold a lot of men on the idea that they need a woman's help in earning a living.

But though there is scarcely such a thing as "men's work" any more, we've failed to sell men on the idea that there's no such thing as "women's work" either.

Whatever men don't like to do is still regarded by them as "women's work." That includes washing, ironing, cooking, washing dishes, making beds, scrubbing floors and so on.

FAIL TO SELL "WOMEN'S WORK"

A MAN may be married to a woman who puts in as many hours as he does at a paid, full-time job and who works at his side in the yard and on any do-it-yourself project the couple attempts. She may not consider anything that needs to be done a "man's job." But he probably has a long list of things he considers "women's work." And he has no intention of learning how to do anything on the list.

That isn't very bright of us, is it?—to prove to men that we can do any kind of man's job, without also selling them on the idea that there is no such thing as "women's work."

It probably accounts for the reason why so many working wives grow bitter after a few years of doing a "man's job" all day and then finding out that the work that has to be done at home is still regarded as "women's work."

SOCIETY

Troop 101 Plans Project To Finance Summer Trip

Girl Scout Troop 101 is planning a trip for the whole membership this summer, when they journey to Philadelphia in June. The place to be visited was selected after many hours of discussion and debate, and the girls will profit in many ways from this chance to see the birthplace of much of America's history. This troop, like all in Girl Scouting, is subject to rules of the Council, as recommended and established by National Girl Scout authorities; and they have been limited to two money-raising projects to finance the proposed trip. The first one has already been given, a card party supported most generously by the girls' many friends. The second allowable project is to be a combination thrift and bake sale, and bazaar, where articles ranging from specially-made toys to china, glassware, and costume jewelry may be had, as well as home baked foods, and very good used clothing. This event will take place the second week in May in Trinity Memorial church's parish house. Troop 101 is led by Mrs. S. M. McClure, 128 Onondaga avenue, who was their leader when most of the girls were Brownie Scouts. Mrs. McClure teaches school in Youngsville High School, but hurries back to Warren each Monday to guide these young people of the troop in their Scouting activities.

House-to-House Campaign For Cancer Crusade Will Be Made In Warren Tuesday, April 23

This year's house-to-house Cancer Crusade will be intensive drive to save lives here and now, as well as to raise funds to conquer cancer and save countless lives in the future.

Some 75,000 Americans died of cancer last year, simply because the cancer was not detected and properly treated in time. Warren County had its quota of these tragically wasted lives, and if the present rate continues, an equal number will die this year—with-out need.

"These are the lives that our volunteers will strive to save when they ring bells and knock on doors on April 23," declared a spokesman for the American Cancer Society, in an earnest appeal to the citizens of Warren County. "They will implement our double-barreled slogan, 'Fight Cancer With a Checkup and a Check,' and leave educational leaflets with every household they visit."

"Don't throw away this material. It isn't the usual 'throw-away'."

Air Force Chaplain Will Speak Sunday At Sunrise Service

Chaplain (Major General) Charles I. Carpenter, above, Chief of Chaplains of the United States Air Force, will be the principal speaker at the seventh annual Easter Sunrise service at Ridge Camp grounds at Cook Forest State Park on April 21.

Chaplain Carpenter will be down by the Air Force from Washington, D. C., to the Franklin-Oil City Airport where he will be met by members of the Sunrise Service committee and will be transported to Cook Forest where he will spend Saturday night at a Log Cabin the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George MacBeth.

Chaplain Carpenter is a nationally known speaker, and he has selected for his Easter Sunrise Service topic, "Lay Aside the Shroud and Live". His appearance at Cook Forest Park on Easter Sunday morning is expected to bring a huge throng of worshippers from the entire tri-county area.

designed to sell a cause. The least our volunteers will give you contain vital information that may save your life. When you have studied them you will be able to recognize the 'Seven Danger Signs of Cancer'. This knowledge could someday lead you to treatment while there is still a good chance of saving your life.

"You will also understand why we urge you to give yourself a chance by giving your doctor a chance to find a possible hidden cancer, long before it makes itself felt. Never forget that this ruthless disease, which strikes one in four attacks silently and painlessly. That's why the habit of regular medical checkups can literally make the difference between life and death."

Steady progress has been made in the fight against cancer, the spokesman pointed out. One every three cases are now being cured, as against one in four short time ago. Yet cancer is the number two killer in the United States. More people are getting the disease because they are living longer—long enough to be exposed to cancer which strikes so heavily between the ages 45 and 65.

The American Cancer Society has adopted a new and appropriate symbol for its house-to-house drive. World War II had D-Day. The war against cancer will have its C-Day. "C" stands for Cancer and it stands for Courage. All of which adds up to conquer Cancer Day.

World War II also had its "V" for Victory sign in the well known rhythm of dot-dot-dot-dash. The war against cancer also has its C-Day symbol: the dash-dot dash-dot Morse Code signal for the letter "C".

"On April 23, a long-short-long short tattoo on your door or bell will announce one of our give-and-take volunteers," the spokesman for the American Cancer Society concluded. "The signal will tell you to be prepared to give all you can afford to conquer cancer. But will also be the signal for you to take our advice and fight cancer with a checkup, as well as a cheer."

Mrs. John M. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abbott returned Wednesday evening after spending winter in Lakeland, Fla.

YMCA Plans 71st Anniversary

Through the doors in the lower side of this photo hundreds of boys—many who are now prominent and respected leaders in our community—entered to learn the traits of good leadership when the Y. M. C. A. was located, in the very early 1900's, in this building now occupied by the Masonic Lodges and the J. C. Penney store. On Thursday, May 2nd, the YMCA will hold its 71st annual banquet in its present building to commemorate completion of "three score and ten" years of service in Warren. The Committee headed by Karl G. Timm is planning a fine program for this event to which the public is invited. Reserve the date, May 2nd.

Former Editor Of Kane Paper to Edit Teamster Magazine

A dispatch from Washington, D. C., says that Tony Smith, former editor and publisher of The Republican at Kane, and son of G. Scott Smith, has been named to handle press relations for the Teamsters Union and edit its magazine under the union's new $200,000 public relations program. Smith, who is well known among Warren newspaper workers, took on the dual job today as representative of Allied Industrial Research Associates, the New York-Washington firm which has contracted to handle the troubled union's public relations program. David Charnay, chairman of the board of the public relations firm, announced Friday that Smith will be in charge of a news room to be set up in the union's headquarters building here. He said Smith also will be "working editor" of the Teamsters' monthly magazine, of which Teamsters President Dave Beck is editor in chief. Smith is a former newspaper reporter of long experience. He has worked for International News Service, the United Press, the Associated Press and Scripps-Howard newspapers. TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

seen the red-haired girl among the customers.

Persons in the bank at the time of the holdup had described the girl as auburn-haired and of about the same build as the girl that detectives saw in a restaurant where they had stopped for coffee.

At a showing of the movie film, Steele and David noted the similarity of the girl's walk and her clothes to those of the girl who had caught their eye in the restaurant.

The detectives returned to the restaurant where they located a truck driver who was seen talking to the girl. He told them she formerly worked at a West Side restaurant, and from the restaurant the detectives got her home address and identified her as Miss Wanda Dicena, 18, of Cleveland.

That was how the investigation started. It resulted in the surrender of 18-year-old Rose O'Donnell and Steven Ray Thomas, 24, and the capture of Wanda Di Cenzi, also 18—all within 36 hours after the holdup. All but $600 was recovered.

Police said charges will be filed today.

until the President signs a bill giving him more money.

He has said he must have 47 millions to keep full mail service in operation during the remaining 2½ months of this fiscal year. He has promised to restore all the cuts he can if he gets 41 millions.

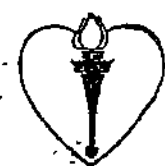

He says the supplemental request was prompted by unforeseen costs. He attributed these to unexpectedly heavy mail volume, a need to open new routes to serve spreading residential areas, and a postal pay raise.

Congressional critics, including Cannon, have contended Summerfield should have lived within his regular budget of more than two billion dollars. They have accused him of violating a law designed to prevent overspending by federal agencies.

Comptroller General Joseph Campbell, head of the watchdog General Accounting Office, said the Post Office Department violated the anti-deficiency law "in spirit" while staying technically in bounds.

But Campbell, in a letter to Summerfield and Cannon, said the Budget Bureau broke the law by allowing the Post Office to spend its regular appropriation too rapidly.

He said the section of the law relating to the postal situation provides no penalty for violations.

laration issued by the Arab leaders in Cairo on Feb. 28. The statement reaffirmed Arab neutrality in the East-West cold war, but took no public stand on Communist penetration of the Middle East Doctrine.

The embassy press statement denied what it described as "misleading rumors" of rioting and violence in Jordan, and that "dissension occurred in the Jordanian army."

Syrian Premier Sabri Assaifi expressed hope in Damascus that stability would be restored soon in Jordan. He added that Syria and all other Arab states are "keen over the safeguarding of Jordan's independence and unity" and hope efforts of Hussein and party leaders could lead to a way out of the present crisis.

Censorship, clamped on Jordan after Hussein fired Nabulsi last week, delayed news dispatches from the turbulent Arab kingdom. But radio Amman put out sketchy details. One broadcast said the Arab Legion had put down an attempted army coup and pledged its loyalty to the King.

State Department officials in Washington kept close watch on the explosive situation. A department press officer said, "We are watching with great interest, but of course we do not intrude ourselves into such a situation."

Mooney, Ericsson and Others in Accidents

Three automobile accidents be-took themselves to happen this weekend.

At 2:55 p.m. Friday, Thomas Emmet Mooney, 29, of 409 Poplar Street was struggling from a parking slot on West Third Avenue when who chanced along but Dr. Francis Ericsson, 45, of 2 Beaty Court.

A careful estimate of damages will set Mooney back $35.35, Ericsson $192.79.

At 7:45 a.m. Saturday, Helen Wilson, 33, of RD 1, Clarendon, was westing along Route 6 near Lily Pond when she sludded into Neota Hill, 18, of Garland, who was proceeding in the opposite direction. Both young ladies had vehicles deemed damaged to the extent of $350.

At 11:40 p.m. Saturday, Dan Cornish, 53, of RD 1, Bear Lake, went south on Hickory Street just far enough to bash into a parked vehicle owned by Jay W. Smith, 407 Lexington Avenue.

Damages will run $150 to Smith, $100 to Cornish.

KILLED IN CRASH

Connellsville, (P) — Jerome McGarrity, 20, of nearby Leisenburg, was killed early yesterday in an auto that rolled off a highway near here and overturned.

Two Motorists Charged With Drunken Driving

City police nabbed two men for drunken driving this weekend, after both struck parked cars. Harry B. Neff, 62, of 1620 Peach Street, Erie, was nabbed at 8:05 Sunday night after he whammed into a parked car in front of 341 Pennsylvania Avenue West. A witness who saw the accident, and thought it was his car that had been struck, lit out on foot and apprehended Neff when his car stopped for the light at Liberty and Pennsylvania. The parked car belonged to William O. Tingwall, 221 Central Avenue, and was damaged to the extent of $150. The offending machine sustained $100 damages. On Saturday evening Dan Cornish of Bear Lake was jailed for drunken driving. Picked up in the afternoon, Dan failed to pass the drunkenness test administered by a doctor and was released. Then, according to the police report, after an evening of bragging about his exploit in local pubs, his aptitude increased measurably. Apprehended by police after he ran into a car on Hickory Street about 11:40 p.m. Saturday he breezed through the test with flying colors. He pleaded guilty when arraigned, is free on $1,000 property bail.

Eastern Section Of Nation Is Enjoying Springlike Weather

By The Associated Press

Warmer, more springlike weather was in the works today from the Great Plains to the Atlantic Coast and mostly fair skies prevailed east of the Mississippi River.

Mostly cloudy skies were indicated for the plains states with scattered showers forecast for the extreme northern and southern fringes of the area.

The far Southwest and southern Pacific Coast was expected to be generally fair.

THIS IS SPRING?—Rickey, a French poodle, knows it is as he perches under an umbrella on a bench in New York's Central Park. The March winds are gone—for the moment—and the April showers have begun, but Rickey wishes those May flowers were already here.

COVER UP JOB—William Zorach, often called the dean of U. S. sculptors, is draping some canvas around a statue on the terrace of his apartment in Brooklyn, N. Y. It's part of Zorach's technique for weather-proofing his statues by leaving them outside during cold weather. His combination apartment-studio was a stable in the "good old days."

OUT OF REACH—And almost out of sight is the top end of Jacob Macken, doorman at a freak show in New York. Costumer Natalia Blumberg has run out of tape measure as she applies it to the length of the eight-foot nine-inch giant who's garbed in Oriental splendor.

BUSINESS AS USUAL—The British colony of Aden pursues its usual occupations despite recent clashes with neighboring Yemen. Here, two workmen are helping construct a dhow, a rakish-master sailing craft, on the shore of Aden Harbor. This ancient method of construction has changed little.

GOOD TO BE ALIVE—Bee Mueller is showing her pleasure in the simple things of life at Cypress Gardens, Fla. Sand, sea and sky are a delight to the pretty gal who recently reigned as the 1957 Florida Products Queen.

FAST FRIENDS—Certainly not pouter pigeons at the moment, these happy birds are giving Marian Wassermann, of Hyattsville, Md., quite a welcome in a park in Washington, D. C. The pigeons spotted Marian handing out a bunch of goodies to their feathered relations, and they muscled right in. It's quite apparent their hostess is not displeased.

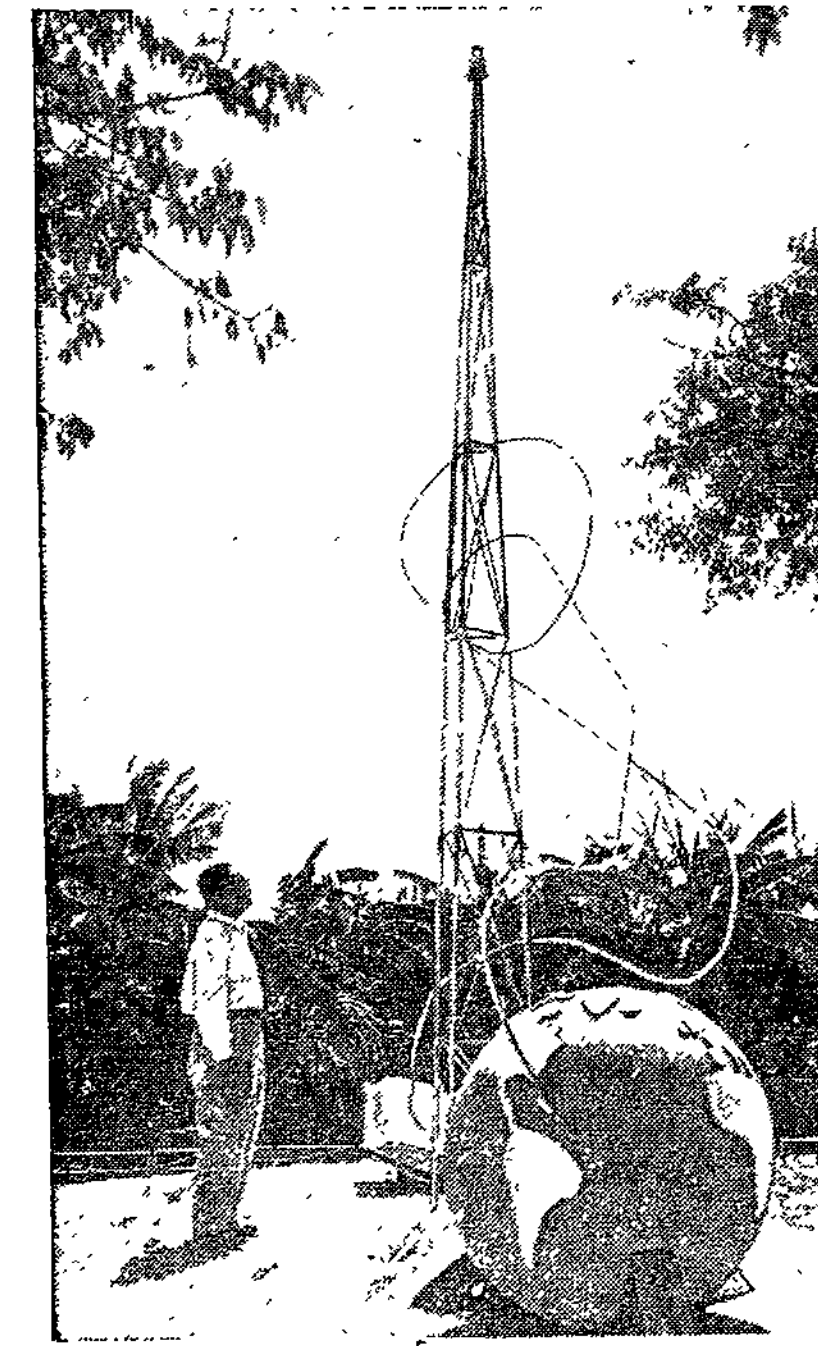

THE FREEZE IS ON—Ranger Danny Lewicki, right, tried a shot but the whole Montreal team seemed to be on hand to stop the puck during a Stanley Cup playoff game at Madison Square Garden. In the net are goalie Jacques Plante and defenseman Tom Johnson.

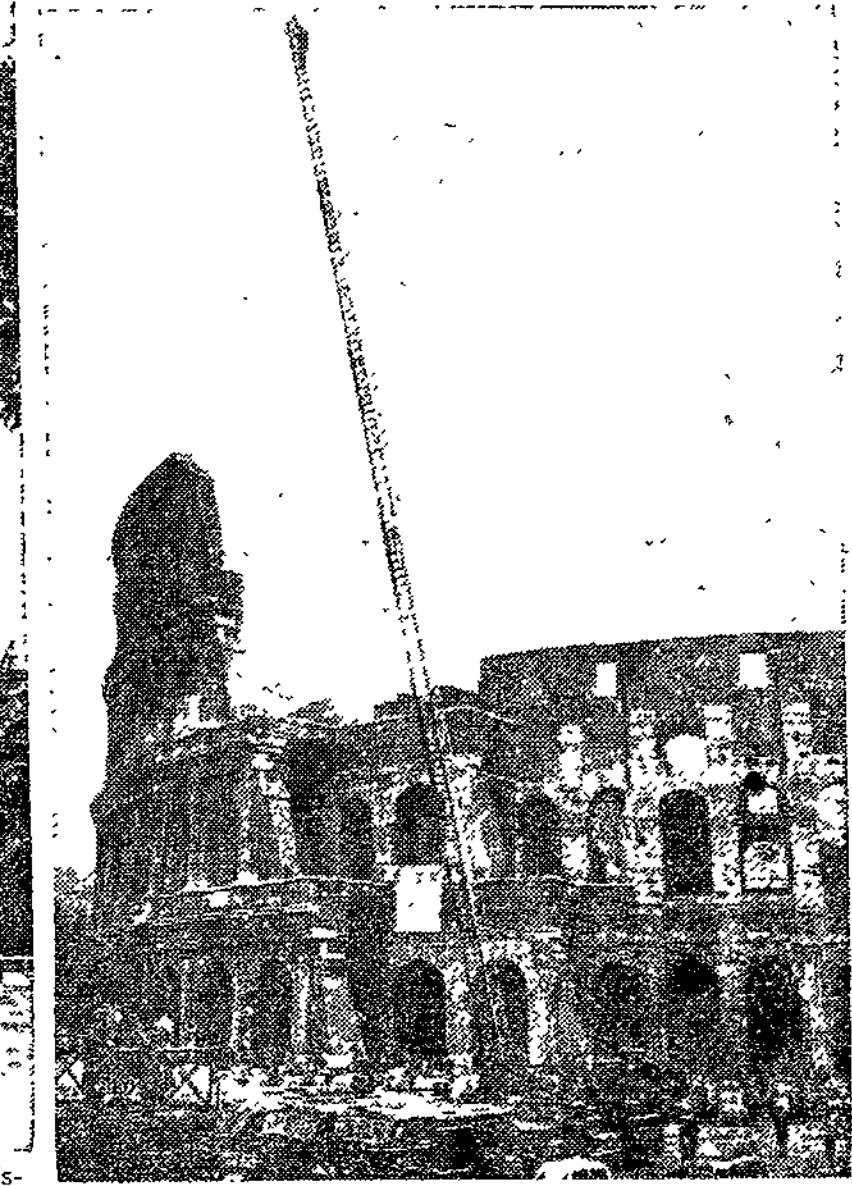

FOUR ON ONE—It takes all four of the Portner brothers to keep a watchful eye on their four-month-old sister Jean as their parents go through customs in New York. They had just arrived by ship from Europe where their dad, Lt. Eugene Portner, had been stationed in Madrid, Spain. He's been reassigned to the U. S. Naval Proving Grounds in Dahlgren, Va.

NOW THEY KNOW—These pedestrians in Paris may not have yet seen the first crocus or robin of spring, but they've found another sure sign. This strong man is back at his usual sidewalk stand after a long winter, and hoisting some heavy iron weights with one hand. Of course, the local Samson expects a few francs for his endeavors.

CREDIT WHERE IT'S DUE—A monument on Margarita Island, off the coast of Venezuela, represents the "Spirit of the Press." Shown with it is newsmen Salvador Hernandez, former editor of the island's newspaper. He was inspired to create the memorial when editors of Venezuela's papers held a convention on the island two years ago. The globe represents the world and the tower symbolizes the power of the press.

IT'S A BLESSING—No, the man perched atop that ladder in Rome is not up there for a closer inspection of the ancient Colosseum. He's a fireman and he was taking part in the annual "blessing of the vehicles" ceremony in front of the famed landmark. Rome's fire brigade was among the cars and trucks assembled for the religious ceremony.

STILL AT IT—Tilling the fields of a farm near Rome are these oxen, hooked to a primitive plow. This ancient method of agriculture has remained virtually unchanged through many centuries. A living link to the past, the giant animals are working in a field that is edged by one of the great engineering works of early Rome—the giant aqueduct in background.

Warren Elks Win Annual Tournament With Jamestown

Bowlers representing the local Lodge of Elks won the second annual tournament with teams from Jamestown lodge in matches that were rolled Sunday afternoon at the Penn Bowling Center and the Elk club. As a result of the victory of the local ten-pinner they were presented the Ruel N. Smith trophy at a roast beef dinner served last evening in the auditorium of the Warren club. The dinner was prepared by the Lewis Caterers and served by the house committee.

In the matches rolled here Sunday the Warren Elks topped the visitors by 15,289 pins as compared to 15,150 rolled by Jamestown. Jamestown had won the earlier match rolled in that city by a total of 79 pins, so that the total for the two matches left Warren with a 60-pin majority. It was the second year in succession that Warren had been presented the trophy.

"Wibb" Riggs, chairman, was in charge of the program that followed the dinner last evening. The visiting bowlers and Elk members were welcomed by Exalted Ruler Ken Graham. Several of the visiting officials responded. It was estimated that approximately 30 bowlers from each lodge participated.

High scores rolled by the competing bowlers were as follows: Dick McVay, (J) 549; Pat Paterniti, (J) 515; Merle Sterling, (W) 543; Paul Coppola, (W) 574; Norm Robinson (J) 528; G. Hanson (W) 532; Karl Berg (J) 543; John Robertson, (J) 521; Glenn Grosch, (W) 538; Ken Vandemark (W) 566; with high single game of 230; Barney Malone (W) 528 with high single game of 231; Emery Nelson (W) 215.

Canadian Is Winner Of $15,000 Greater Greensboro Tourney

By KEN ALYTA
Greensboro, N. C., (AP)—Stan Leonard of Canada has found that for him, at least, life on the links does begin at 40.

He pocketed $2,000 first money in the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament yesterday with a 69 finish for a 276 to win his first American tournament in three years of circuit play.

A professional for 17 years, the balding Leonard, stayed pretty close to home most of that time. He won the Canadian PGA title five times and had a good club job. The life of a traveling traveling circuit player held little appeal for him.

Leonard won about $5,700 in eight U. S. starts this year before coming here. Three times in the Masters at Augusta, Ga., he has finished in the top 25. He pocketed about $14,000 last year.

Leonard, who plays from LaChute, Canada, had a three-stroke edge over Mike Souchak, Grossinger's N. Y. who played with him. Julius Boros, Southern Pines, N. C., tied for third at 280 with young Gary Player, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Speaking of Sports ...

Elsewhere in the Times-Mirror will be found an advertisement calling attention to broadcasts of the Pittsburgh Pirate games this season, sponsored by the Atlantic Refining Company and Pittsburgh Brewing Company. "Warmup" time is scheduled ten minutes before each game.

A bill to limit professional fighters to only one main or semi-final bout in seven days is cleared for floor action in the Senate. The measure would eliminate a section of the athletic code that prohibits professional fighters from more than 15 rounds within 72 hours. The bill also calls for all fighters to wear gloves of at least eight ounces.

Grayson's Flag Picks: White Sox, Red Legs

CALLING THEM TO THE POST

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The Chicago White Sox are going to do it this year. They are going to beat the New York Yankees for the American League pennant and refresh a Subway Series-weary nation. The Cincinnati Reds will help this along by winning in the National League.

OUR FIGURES INSIST the pennant races will come out like this: American League: 1. Chicago, 2. New York, 3. Detroit, 4. Cleveland, 5. Boston, 6. Baltimore, 7. Kansas City, 8. Washington. National League: 1. Cincinnati, 2. Milwaukee, 3. Brooklyn, 4. St. Louis, 5. New York, 6. Pittsburgh, 7. Chicago, 8. Philadelphia.

As long as Minnie Minoso risks his carcass to get on base (hit 23 times last year) and Nellie Fox can cram his jaw with tobacco, Senor Lopez has a dangerous club in Comiskey Park.

They can run like his Indians couldn't, and the pitching could be near sensational with Billy Pierce, Jack Harshman and Dick Donovan firing. A little first basing and a lot of hitting by Larry Dobm might shove them on top. We say it will.

ON PAPER, THE YANKEES are—the Yankees. Casey Stengel feels this is his best team. We're going against them for the simple reason it's time somebody beat them. Percentages insist they're due to lose. We like the figures—and the Chicks.

The Tigers, up a couple of notches, have a star in Al Kaline. You'll also like Jack Tighe, their refreshing manager.

Except for the pitching, Cleveland's wearing out by degrees.

Even Ted Williams says the Red Sox are no better than fifth place and have only two pitchers, Frank Sullivan and Tom Brewer, and so infield.

Paul Richards is still trying to do it with castoffs at Baltimore, and standing still. A rookie third baseman, Brooks Robinson, shows some potential, and Gus Triandos has it in him to become a catching standout.

If Lou Boudreau keeps getting more Yankees, they could shift the Kansas City franchise to Denver without loss of recognition. Enough class rubs off to keep them a notch above Charley Dresen's Senators, who are hopeless.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE, the same threesome will go right down to the wire, with a reverse order of finish. Birdie Tebbetts, with the help of pitching coach Tom Ferriek, has more hurling left than anyone thinks, and all the sluggers you'd want.

Milwaukee, blessed with talent, still is weak at second and in left. The pitching, though, is the best in the majors.

Every year the old Dodgers are supposed to be wearing out. They finally may this year.

Frank Lane has his St. Louis ultimatum from Gussie Busch, but another year in which to deliver. This season, he still has Stan the Man in agile shape for a first division finish.

The Giants are my darkhorse team because this may be the year Willie Mays puts it all together—hitting, running and fielding.

The Pirates play exciting ball behind Bobby Bragan's bold talk, but they don't have the team depth to sustain winning habits. The Chicago Cubs have Ernie Banks and a new manager, Bob Scheffing. Period. The Phillies are headed downward as the elastic wears out of Robin Roberts' arm.

Baltimore and Washington Have Baseball Stage All To Themselves In Solo Opener

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

Baltimore and Washington, neither a serious challenger for the American League pennant, had the stage all to themselves as the 1957 major league baseball season got under way today with the traditional solo opener in the nation's capitol.

A pair of run-of-the-mill right-handers, Hector Brown 9-7 of the Orioles and Bob Chakales 4-4 of the Senators, were poised for the inaugural but not before a much more noted pitcher, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, threw out the first ball.

The majors roll into high gear tomorrow with all teams active as the National League starts its 82nd season and the American its 57th.

The New York Yankees remain a prohibitive favorite to win their third straight pennant and eighth in nine years under Manager Casey Stengel. The odds-makers have made them 2-5 favorites, shortest on record.

All observers expect another tight race in the National League. Milwaukee is a slight favorite over Brooklyn and Cincinnati.

Old familiar faces like Bob Feller and Al Rosen are gone to be replaced by eager newcomers like

Celtics' Younger Set Help Bring Beantown Title

Boston (AP)—Boston savored its first world basketball championship today because of rookies Tom Heinsohn and Bill Russell and a pair of slick sophomores.

There are no better players in the National Basketball Assn. than men like Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman.

But when the chips were down the Celtics' younger set came through to nail down the team's first playoff championship in the 11 year history of the loop.

In the most exciting title series to date, Boston nipped St. Louis 125-123 in double overtime Saturday in the decisive seventh game.

Heinsohn scored 37 points, hitting on 17 of 33 field goal tries, and had 23 rebounds. Russell grabbed 32 rebounds and tallied 19 points.

Heinsohn was chosen NBA rookie of the year.

Hart Is Favored To Defeat Stevenson In Arena Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE

Garnett (Sugar) Hart, upset by Boston's Walt Byars in his last start, takes on Willie (Pineapples) Stevenson, another rugged Bostonian, in a 10-round bout at New York's St. Nicholas Arena tonight.

The lanky, hard-hitting Hart was a 5-1 favorite when he had his winning streak of 12 snapped by Byars at Madison Square Garden last March 8. The 21-year-old Philadelphia welterweight is a 3-1 choice over Stevenson.

Pineapples is no pushover.

The bout will be telecast DuMont 10:30 p. m., EST.

Heavyweight contender Bob Satterfield is featured in a non-television fight. Satterfield, husky Chicago clouter, mixes with Oakland's Ben Wise at Oakland, Calif. tonight.

Barons Need Only One More Victory To Cop the Cup

Rochester (P) — Cleveland's Barons headed home today needing only one more victory over the Rochester Americans to win their eighth Calder Cup in the last 21 years of American Hockey League competition.

The Barons, who edged the Americans out of second place in regular season play, took a stranglehold on the cup competition last night when they beat Rochester 6-3 on the Americans'

SPORTS IN BRIEF
By The Associated Press
GOLF
Dallas, Tex. — Marlene Bauer Hagge is taking a three stroke lead in the halfway mark in the $7,500 Dallas Women's Open Golf Tournament, set a competitive course record of 67 for a 36-hole of 123.

TENNIS
San Juan, Puerto Rico — Philadelphia's Vic Seixas beat Mervyn Rose of Australia 1-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4 to win the annual invitation tennis tournament.

RACING
New York — Mister Jive $18-90, a Kentucky Derby candidate ridden by Hedy Woodhouse, scored a two length victory over a field of twelve 3-year-olds in the $30,450 Gotham Stakes at Jamaica.
Laurel Md. — Four Fathoms $10, part of the Howell E Jackson entry, won by a nose in the COMEBACK SWING—Detroit's Al Kaline shows he's back in form this season as he takes a picture-book batting practice cut. Al, the Tigers' right fielder, had a bad season—for him—last time around, a sore shoulder at the start causing his average to hit .314 with 27 homers and 128 runs batted in. He was batting champ in 1955.

GOES TO HIS HEAD—Middleweight Champ Gene Fullmer's face twists as he slams the heavy bag with a left hook. Fullmer is conditioning for his return bout with Ray Robinson, May 1 at Chicago Stadium. He trains at Tam o' Shanter Golf Club.

$11,400 Chesapeake Trial for 3-year-olds at Laurel.
Lexington, Ky. — The Claiborne Farm's Kentucky Derby nominee, Bandit $12.20, captured the Phoenix Handicap in 1:09 3-5, the second fastest 6 furlongs ever raced at Keeneland.
Hallandale, Fla. — La Verite $55.40 caught the highly favored Federal Hill in a thrilling stretch run to win the Biscayne Bay Handicap at Gulfstream Park.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

IMPROVING STREAMS TO AID FISHING
PARTS OF A STREAM MAY HOLD NO FISH WHERE ITS BANKS HAVE NO TREES TO SHADE AND COOL THE WATER, AND SERVE AS PROTECTIVE COVER FOR FISH. TREES AND BRUSH ALSO SUPPLY FISH WITH FOOD IN THE FORM OF VARIOUS INSECTS, ET CETERA, THAT DROP INTO THE WATER. WILLOWS WILL SERVE THE PURPOSE, AND THEY'RE EASY TO START. MAKE THIS A SPRINGTIME PROJECT TO BETTER YOUR FISHING. CUT PENCIL-SIZED SWITCHES OR LIMBS, ABOUT 2 OR 3 FEET LONG, FROM WILLOWS ELSEWHERE. CUT BUTTS DIAGONALLY AND PUSH THEM SIX INCHES DEEP AT WATER'S EDGE.
